'BUILDING FOR CHANGE: DEVELOPING SOCIAL, ENVIRONMENTAL AND ECONOMIC EQUITY THROUGH ADAPTIVE REUSE'

'BUILDING FOR CHANGE: THE ARCHITECTURE OF CREATIVE REUSE' RUTH LANG, 2022

Where: John D Barry Theatre Rm. 281, Bolton St.
When: Friday March 24th 1 - 2pm
Who: All welcome!

Dr Ruth Lang is an architect, researcher, writer, and senior lecturer in professional practice at the Royal College of Art and the London School of Architecture. As lead researcher in the Design Museum's Future Observatory, she is exploring the hurdles to adopting low embodied carbon construction in the house-building sector, and identifying ways in which these can be overcome by using the Design Museum as a springboard for innovative practice.
