Are you aged between 16 and 24 and living in Dublin?

Would you like to find out more about apprenticeships?

TU Dublin - City Campus is delivering an innovative educational programme which provides a stepping stone for young people who are interested in apprenticeships.

Who is the Access to Apprenticeship Programme for?

The course is aimed at young men and women aged between 16 and 24 living in Dublin who experience social and economic barriers to work and/or education.

When?

The next 15-week programme is starting September 2026. Applications will go live on the TUDublin website on April 16th 2026.

Where?

TU Dublin - City Campus Bolton Street and work placement locations.

Is there a cost?

The course is free. This programme is funded by the Higher Education Authority in Ireland.

What does the course cover?

Topics covered will include:

- New apprenticeships
- Preparing your CV and Interview Skills
- Work placement (3 Weeks)
- Health & Safety and Safe Pass Certificates
- Sampling many different apprenticeships across a wide range of different industries:

Construction Engineering
Electrical Motor
Aviation

Do I need to have any qualifications?

Applicants must be at least 16 years of age and have a minimum of 40% - 54% (New Junior Cert) or grade D (Old Junior Cert) in five subjects in the Junior Certificate or the equivalent. Employers may require additional minimum qualifications. There is access criteria to satisfy, see details in the application form.

How will the course help me?

- Greater understanding of which apprenticeship suits you
- Improved Interview & CV skills
- Preparing you for starting an apprenticeship
- Continuous Professional Development (CPD) Certificate
