Why undertake a postgraduate course?

Due to an increasingly competitive and rapidly changing employment market, more Irish people than ever before are pursuing postgraduate courses. Graduates know that specialising at postgraduate level is a definite way to prepare for a job market that is continuously evolving. Professionals realise that in order to future-proof themselves and to gain a competitive advantage in their career, a postgraduate qualification is the smart way to achieve success.

Postgraduate education will not only boost your earnings and employability potential, but will also expose you to innovative ideas and fresh perspectives, which will be readily applicable to your chosen career. So if you've just completed an undergraduate degree and you want to progress even further, or if you have been out of education for a while and are looking for a way to advance or change your career, a TU Dublin postgraduate degree might be just what you're looking for.

Why choose TU Dublin?

Internationally recognised, TU Dublin is one of the largest third-level educators in Ireland. Providing an industry-focussed postgraduate curriculum in state-of-the-art facilities, we offer a broad range of full time, part time and conversion courses to suit your needs.

Postgraduate students will receive world-class tuition across a broad range of disciplines such as: Architecture & Built Environment, Business, Computing, Digital & Data, Creative Arts, Design & Media, Culinary, Hospitality & Tourism, Engineering, Law, Music & Drama, Sciences & Health and Social Sciences & Education.

Thinking about a different career?

Our Conversion courses enable graduates to pursue a career in an alternate sector than that of their primary degree, by providing the necessary knowledge and skills to transition into a new career or industry by building on existing qualifications.

Whether it is a complete change, a new passion or the opportunity to diversify your learning, a TU Dublin postgraduate course will give you the educational foundation to make that change. Take the next step and apply online today at
